

THE POISON MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

DEADLINE | 31 AUG 2026

Supported by

FOR THE GRULAC REGION

Latin America and the Caribbean

www.thepoisonjournal.com/apc-waivers

About the Program

The Mentorship Program (MP) provides scientific support and APC waivers to early-career researchers, offering high-level editorial guidance to two authors per cycle.

To apply, candidates should submit their manuscript along with the Application Form during the open call periods.

For more details, please refer to the next pages for the key benefits and eligibility criteria.

Key benefits

- No Article Processing Charge (APC) for your manuscript
- Fast-track publication
- Personalized editorial mentorship
- Networking and visibility opportunities
- Award certificate

Elegibility criteria

- Early-career researchers
≤ 10 years of graduation*
- Residency within the specified region
- Upper-intermediate proficiency in English
At least B2 level according to the CEFR
- Submission of a manuscript relevant to the field of toxicology, together with the completed MP Application Form, by the established deadline

*Senior applicants may be considered on a case-by-case basis

Ready to take the first steps?

1. Stay tuned to our social media channels and apply at the right time

2. Attach the MP Application Form with your article submission

www.thepoisonjournal.com/article-submission

For any further inquiries, please contact us at editorial@thepoisonjournal.com